While structured around a scenario at Generic Inc., the Agile Growth Pathway is designed as a flexible resource for all. Use it as a pathway to follow on your own, a foundation to adapt, or inspiration to create something similar in your teams, communities, or organisations. Feel free to adopt, adapt, or disassemble it to best support your unique goals in agile professional development.

1. TL;DR / Overview

At Generic Inc, we've developed a career growth pack and pathway for Agile Practitioners and People Managers, based on an industry-recognised competency model to support professional development. The pack is complemented by tools and templates proven effective across various teams and organisations.

This resource is designed to be lightweight and user-friendly, supporting colleagues at all experience levels in enhancing self-awareness and identifying the skills and resources needed to grow as agile professionals at our company and beyond.

2.1. Career Levels of an Agile Practitioner

Generic Inc. consists of multiple divisions with agile delivery colleagues distributed throughout. Within each division, the Agile Practitioner career path is standardised and includes multiple levels, enabling colleagues to deepen their expertise or broaden their scope through people management responsibilities.

Colleagues can join Generic Inc. at various levels based on their experience, with pathways to deepen their practice or transition into people management and leadership roles.

Each division is typically led by a Head of Practice, who oversees the growth and development of both Practitioners and People Managers, ensuring alignment across teams and maintaining a high standard of agile practice and delivery.

The term 'Agile Practitioner' is used here as a role term, similar to Individual Contributor, and should not be confused with the 'Agile/Lean Practitioner' stance as defined in the Agile Coaching Growth Wheel.

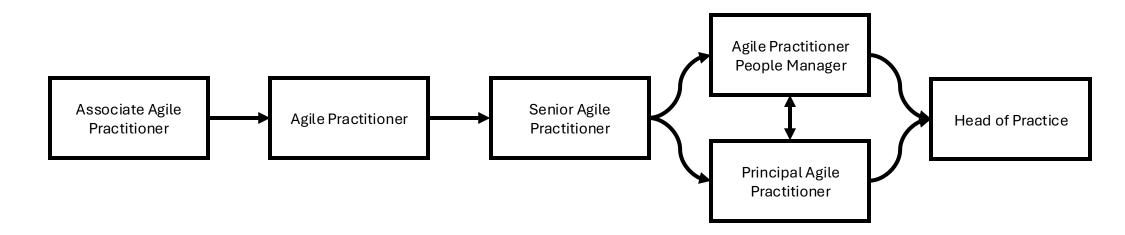

2.2. Career Levels of an Agile Practitioner

- Associate Agile Practitioner An entry-level role focused on foundational skills in agile practices and delivery support.
- Agile Practitioner A fully established practitioner who independently supports teams and contributes to agile delivery.
- Senior Agile Practitioner An experienced professional demonstrating advanced agile competencies, often guiding teams and mentoring associates.
- Agile Practitioner People Manager A role focused on both agile practice and people management, overseeing the development and performance of practitioners within a team.
- Principal Agile Practitioner A highly skilled expert responsible for leading strategic agile practices and developing agile maturity across teams.
- Head of Practice This senior role oversees groups of Agile Practitioner People Managers and their practitioners, shaping agile delivery practices, managing talent development, and ensuring alignment with the organisation's strategic goals.

2.3. Career Levels of an Agile Practitioner

Pathways for Progression:

- Practice-Focused Path: Practitioners focused on deepening expertise can progress towards the Principal Agile Practitioner level, leading high-impact initiatives and influencing strategic decisions.
- People Management Path: Practitioners interested in leadership can transition to the Agile Practitioner People Manager role, with opportunities to manage teams, ultimately progressing towards the Head of Practice role.
- It's Not Linear: Practitioners can move between roles as their goals evolve. A Principal Agile Practitioner can transition into People Management, and vice versa, to align their career with their growth and aspirations.

3.1. Background - Common Questions

Common Questions from Agile Practitioners:

- "How am I doing right now? What's expected of me?"
- "Where should I focus my energy and efforts to grow and develop?"
- "What's the difference between Role A and Role B?"
- "I'm currently in Role X but want to move toward Role Y. What could I develop to help me get there?"

Common Questions from People Managers and Heads of Practice:

- "I want to develop Person X but am unsure of the best courses to recommend."
- "How can I encourage my team to articulate their development needs?"
- "My team is strong in Competency A but needs growth in Competency B to improve service quality."
- "I'd like my team to apply their certifications and theoretical knowledge practically."

3.2. Background - What's Changed

Over recent years, the following resources have become widely available, providing greater support for agile practitioners:

- Aligned Role Descriptions at Generic Inc. Define clear expectations for individuals and roles within the organisation.
- Agile Delivery Growth Pack Allows practitioners to assess their current skills, track time and energy allocation, and plan their professional growth.
- Human API A tool and facilitated event enabling individuals and teams to articulate their needs for optimal performance.
- Agile Coaching Growth Wheel (ACGW) An industry-recognised guide outlining key competencies for agile professionals.

Community-Developed tools and practices have also been adopted and used within Generic Inc:

- Co-Piloting Practitioners pair to transfer skills, share knowledge, and build resilience by leveraging the expertise of the community and colleagues to create learning experiences.
- Find a Facilitator An internal tool allowing teams to request and be matched with independent facilitators, helping Agile Practitioners stay engaged with their teams while others hone facilitation skills.
- ACGW + Courses and Certs A resource hub with relevant training, certifications, and resources for practitioners planning their professional development.
- Community Menu A repository of colleague-led workshops and courses fostering skill development and knowledge sharing across teams.

3.3. Background - Capability Development

Investing in the skills, capabilities, and careers of Agile Practitioners and People Managers is crucial for increasing adaptability, resilience, and growth. Supporting their development not only helps to shorten the lead time to value but also unlocks greater potential across teams, leaders, and the organisation.

As practitioners grow, so does the value they bring. They amplify the capabilities of those around them, becoming accelerators for delivery, collaboration, and innovation - shaping the organisations they serve today and the ones they will build tomorrow.

Empowered with clear career plans, supportive networks, and the right resources, practitioners drive change, enhance team performance, and help create resilient, high-performing organisations.

3.4. Background - The Opportunity

Wouldn't it be beneficial if Agile Practitioners and Agile Practitioner People Managers had a clear way to understand where they are on their journey, envision their next steps, and create a pathway for growth within the company? Imagine supporting colleagues to grow and develop in a focused way, with tailored resources and experiences that not only help them thrive but also drive the company's growth and success.

And wouldn't it be even better if they had a resource to prepare and support their development, enabling them to make a greater impact wherever their journey takes them?

The next slide compiles existing templates, tools, and resources into one central place – introducing the "Agile Growth Pathway."

This pathway is designed to equip practitioners with transferable skills across various contexts and organisations. Work with your People Manager and mentor to align it with your role, team and context.

6. Origin Story - How We Got Here

The following slides outline the method and process by which the Agile Growth Pathway and its resources were developed.

6.1. What We Did - Role & Stance Matrix

- 1. Role Comparison: We used AI to quickly compare and identify distinctions across roles within the Agile Practitioner to Agile Practitioner People Manager/Principal career levels to create a basic matrix. We made a conscious decision to exclude the Head of Practice role from this exercise.
- 2. Aligning Role Descriptions with Stances: We then matched Role Descriptions to the Agile Coaching Growth Wheel (ACGW) stance definitions to expand the matrix.
- 3. Agile Practitioner Role & Stance Matrix: The resulting matrix illustrates how practitioners can evolve stances and competencies, helping colleagues to identify focus areas for deepening or broadening their skills.

The matrix does not imply that acquiring a specific number of competencies guarantees promotion. It is designed to illustrate different competency levels across roles, helping practitioners reflect on, broaden, or deepen their expertise.

The matrix is based on the characteristics and role requirements of Generic Inc. Users of the Agile Growth Pathway can adapt or create a similar matrix tailored to the roles and levels within their organisation.
